Google Analytics

This website makes use of Google Analytics, a web analysis service from Google Inc. ("Google"). Google Analytics makes use of so-called "cookies", text files which are saved on your computer and which allow an analysis of the utilisation of the website by you.

The information generated by the cookie about your use of the website (including your IP address) is transmitted via a Goggle server in USA and saved there. Google will make use of this information in order to evaluate the utilisation of the website in order to collate reports about your website activities for the website operator and others services associated with the utilisation of the website and internet. Google will also transmit this information to third parties if this is required by law or if these data are processed by third parties on behalf of Google. Google will never combine your IP address with other Google data. You can prevent the installation of cookies by an appropriate setting of your browser software; however, we would like to point out that in this case you may not be able to make use of all the functions provided by this website.

By using this website you declare that you approve of the processing of the data collected by Google in the manner described above and for the purposes described.
